The Bulletin

Norwich, Friday, July 2, 1909.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Every small boy in town will start a near-101 Ranch show today.

Many farmers have begun haying and consider the crop better than the average.

The extreme heat lessened the attendance at the preparatory lecture Thursday evening.

Cooling trolley and automobile rides take the throngs of hundreds on Thursday evening.

Give Closson & Kingsbury your order for decorating. Headquarters in Carroll block.—adv.

Poultry raisers complain of the number of mink, which kill broilers by the score this season.

The annual reunion of the Potter family will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Plumb in Oakville July 5.

With the opening of the vacation season come the reports of drowning or narrow escapes, largely due to carelessness.

The New London Telegraph states that the Kronig family of Norwich has taken the Nelson cottage at Ocean beach for the summer.

Many eastern Connecticut towns are to hold their patriotic celebrations on Saturday, as nearly everybody wants to come to Norwich for the 5th.

McClure, the decorator, is receiving orders daily: Broadway theater; telephone 467-12.—adv.

Freight traffic for June was heavy and the business being done now is not far behind that of the spring and summer of 1907.

Orders issued from the office of the adjutant general place Lieut. Col. Charles W. Gale of Norwich on the retired list upon his own application.

In accordance with its custom the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad has added several trains this week for the accommodation of the extra summer travel.

Fruit dealers about the state claim that the price of lemons is to advance as a result of the damage done by the Italian earthquake—unwelcome news in the picnic season.

Base fishermen were aware of the fact that the law was off on Thursday, and the trout law on until next April 1. Taken as a whole, the trout fishing has been very good this season.

Arrangements were completed today for the meeting in New Britain on July 3, 4 and 5 of the twenty-second annual celebration of the United German Roman Catholic societies of Connecticut.

Local Endeavors have been notified that the International Christian Endeavor convention will be held in St. Paul, Minn., from July 7 to 12. Delegates will be in attendance from all parts of the world.

The historic committee, Dr. F. P. Gulliver, chairman, has issued a valuable little pamphlet, "Persons and Places in the Ancient Town of Norwich, in Connecticut." Founders, early settlers, industries, taverns, etc., are noted briefly, and in a most informing way.

At the closing exercises of the Georgetown public schools the address by Rev. R. E. Shortell, formerly of Norwich, was much enjoyed by all, according to the Norwich Owl. He cautioned parents to develop equally the mental, moral and physical welfare of children, and to the graduating class called particular attention to being careful in their deportment on the train to and from the high school.

Says the Waterbury American: Invitations have been received in Waterbury for the banquet to be given President Taft on Monday by Mr. and Mrs. Winslow Williams at their residence, Rockledge, Yantic. Mr. Williams has one of the largest woolen mills in that section of the state and one of the most beautiful homes.

The factory is in every way model, and Mr. Williams gives much thought to the comfort of his employees.

LAKE PLEASANT DOINGS.
Rev. A. P. Blinn and Family at Camp Ground—Water Supply Changed.

While there are not nearly as many people at Lake Pleasant as usual, during the last few days many cottages have been rented and many summer homes have been opened for the season.

Rev. Albert P. Blinn, secretary of the camp meeting, is located with his wife and mother at the Bungalow on Massasoit street.

Clarence A. Smith of Norwich Town is located at the Wilcox cottage, which he inherited through the death of his sister. He is negotiating for the sale of the place, as he says Norwich is good enough for him summer or winter.

The camp meeting association has ceased operating its water plant at the Lake Pleasant Water Supply Co. has been ready to furnish water and about one hundred cottages have been connected with the new plant.

Quite a few from the section are planning to take advantage of the excursion rates and visit Norwich during the celebration.

Rev. Mr. Blinn will return to Norwich Saturday in order to conduct the service Sunday at the spiritual academy.

The prospects for the Lake Pleasant convention, which opens August 1 are excellent. Among the speakers secured are Prof. W. J. Cook of Amherst, ex-Senator J. H. Valley of Watertown, ex-Mayor Thomas Thompson of New Bedford, Mrs. May S. Pepper Vanderbilt, Rev. Albert P. Blinn and Prof. J. W. Colville.

Open House at Chelsea Lodge.
The Chelsea Boat club held open house Thursday at Chelsea lodge at Scotch Cap, Janitor Geary being in attendance and serving refreshments. Many of the members and their friends were visitors during the afternoon, coming down to launch parties and by trolley.

Macadam Completed.
The work of building a macadam in Union square has been completed by the street commissioner, who has done an excellent job. Tarvia has been placed on it and it will not wash so badly hereafter. The repaving of the hill into Chestnut street is now under way and tarvia is being used there.

London has a population of 4,757,767.

DECISIONS HANDLED DOWN IN SUPERIOR COURT.

Several Matters Decided by Judge Case. Arguments on Motion to Set Aside Verdict.

The final session of the civil superior court was held here on Wednesday, at which time a motion to set aside the verdict in the case of Harrington vs. Downing, in which the plaintiff was given $200, was argued by Attorneys Shields and Judge Case taking the papers. Court was then adjourned without date.

A number of decisions were handed down by Judge Case as follows:
Motion for more specific statement in the case of the Thames Ferry company vs. the city of New London was denied.

The summer was overruled in the case of Connecticut vs. David S. Gilmore, adm.

A motion to set aside the verdict in the case of Furlong, adm., vs. the New Haven road and grant a new trial was denied.

Judgment for the defendant was given in the case of J. Fred Trivette vs. Charles P. Channing, exec.

In the case of Joseph E. Kellier vs. Margaret Kelley judgment was given that the plaintiff be given $3 a week. Judgment for the defendant was given in the case of Bridget Kelley vs. D. S. Gilmore, adm.

Judgment per stipulation for $2,853.93 was given in the case of the city of New London vs. George Washington Turner.

In the divorce case of Michael Cohen vs. Ida Cohen judgment was given for the defendant. This was a contested suit, the grounds alleged being desertion.

The motion for alimony during litigation was denied in the case of Miller vs. Miller, the judge stating that the case was not in court as yet.

PLAUT-CADDEN BUILDING.

Front Has Been Completed and Staging Removed—Names in Copper Cornice.

The work on the front of the new five-story building of the Plant-Cadden company, which is to be their home when completed, which it is hoped will be by October, has been finished and the building has been removed to the street, the name Plaut-Cadden being in the copper cornice. It will be decorated for the celebration.

Electric Signs.

An electric sign with the initials C. A. C. has been put in position by the Central Athletic club on the third floor of the Stead building, on Franklin square, and the Halle club also has its name in an electrical sign on the front of its building at No. 143 Main street.

Among the public spirited merchants of the West Side who have put their places of business in holiday attire are Gray & Messinger, Joseph D. Pfeiffer, The Rubin Bottling Works, and Druggist Herbert M. Leary.

To Preach at Christ Church.

Rev. J. Newton Perkins of New York will preach at Christ Episcopal church Sunday morning. He was formerly of this city.

Loan Exhibit.

The headquarters of the celebration will be on the main floor of the Buckingham Memorial.

The loan exhibition, under the management of the Trumbull chapter, D. A. R., will be open at the Converse Art gallery July 3 to 7, inclusive, at the following hours:

Saturday, July 3, from 2 to 6 p. m.

Monday, July 5, from 10 a. m. to 2 p. m.

Tuesday, July 6, from 2 to 6 p. m.

Wednesday, July 7, from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m.

No Vehicles on Streets of Parade.

In arranging for the formation of the divisions, Chief Marshal Gale has left Main street free, side streets being used. He desires that all streets for the formation and for the passing of the parade should be free from all vehicles of every description.

Judges for Auto Parade.

The automobile parade have been selected by the common council and will be Principal Henry A. Tirrell of the Academy, Willis A. Briscoe and Robert Perkins. From the entries received, it is probable that there will be at least 60 machines in the parade, which is to be in two divisions, the decorated and undecorated machines.

All Gone but Upper Galleries.

J. C. Averill announced to The Bulletin Thursday afternoon that tickets had been given to every applicant up to 10 p. m. and that every seat was taken except those in the upper galleries. Since then about 20 applicants have been given seats in family circle where more can be had.
